Anne Goswell:

Pole Dancing, Zumba and Exercise to Music Instructor

GOESWELL SCHOOL OF DANCE

I am proud to announce that Goeswell will be running its first ever pole competition in Scotland's Capital on the Saturday 20th April 2013. The location of the event is The Granary, The Shore, Leith, Edinburgh.

Competitors are registering from across Scotland and we have big names from the Pole Dance Competition community judging the classes.

Dancers can enter 3 separate categories:

- Set Dance - Performing a routine based on dance that I will provide in advance and being judged on their execution of the moves that I have selected for the level that they enter.
- Free Style - Dancers will select their own piece of music and prepare their own dance in advance of the competition.
- Improvisation - After listening to a piece of music on the day of the event twice, dancers will perform their own routine and be judged on how well they interpret the music and execute their choice of moves.
- Doubles - 2 dances performing in unison.
- Group Dance - 3 or more dancers.

There are 5 levels that will be used to grade the dancers, these are beginner, intermediate, advanced, instructor and professional.

Uniquely the performers will also be judged within age categories and prizes awarded for the best performance in each age bracket.

In order to make this a memorable experience for all, I am offering sponsorship opportunities to local and industry related companies to assist with the success of this event. These are described below and will give you the opportunity to promote your brand and products to the competitors and audience at the event.
